..... who
are interested in community services.

The Lions clubs work actively in their respective communities. More often than not, the local Lions club is a factor to be reckoned with in the community and society in general. For example, Lions have brought the everyday issues of the disabled into the limelight.

It is the club and you as a member that decide what we should do. It can range from organizing outings for the elderly and the isolated at a local level to different help projects in third world countries.

Lions' administration is paid for by membership fees.

Lions are apolitical and not bound by or to any religion.

Lions - people like you ....

..... who
want to help other people

1,4 million people in the entire world, over 14,000 in Sweden, know that together we can do more than if we were on our own.

Lions started in 1917 and established itself in Sweden in 1948 and ever since has helped with voluntary services internationally, on the national level and locally where the resources of the communities are simply not enough.

Lions improve the quality of life for people all over the world.

For example:

- With the educational and training programme Lions Quest, we can strengthen and empower our youth to say no to drugs and from being bullied.

- We have the resources to assist in times of natural disasters and to help rebuild.
- People with disabilities have been assisted and supported in many ways.
- Outings and entertainment of all sorts to gild the elderly's everyday life.

- Through the international eyesight programme "Sight First" we attempt to treat curable eye diseases.

..... who
seek new experiences and people.

As a Lion you will make new acquaintances. At your local club, in any of the 350 Lions clubs in Sweden, you will find the friendship opportunities with Lions from other countries as well. This is a huge forum as there are Lions clubs in over 200 countries.

Lions thrive and meet up during monthly meetings and other events as well as when they work together in helping others.

The women and men in Lions give of their time to improve the quality of life for others. You will notice that even your own quality of life will improve through that. Helping others gives a lot in terms of joy and gratification.

Within Lions you can also work with different tasks of which some are at the leadership level. This gives you new experiences and friends and develops your potential as a leader.
